

TAFT DISMISSES GIFFORD PINCHOT

Chief Forester Removed From the Service.

INSUBORDINATION THE CHARGE

Two Other Members of the Forestry Bureau Follow Their Chief Out of the Government Employ—Chief Executive Realizes Fully What Pinchot's Dismissal Means in a Political Way.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Gifford Pinchot, chief forester and intimate friend of Theodore Roosevelt, was dismissed from the service of the United States by President Taft for insubordination. Associate Forester Overton W. Price and Assistant Law Officer Alexander C. Shaw, Pinchot's immediate assistants in the forestry bureau, followed their chief out of the government employ.

Thoroughly indignant over the action of Mr. Pinchot in inducing Senator Dooliver to read a letter from him in the senate, President Taft would listen to no advice that the forester's violation of executive orders be overlooked pending the inquiry soon to be undertaken by congress. He declared the dignity of the office he had been chosen by the people to fill was being attacked and he would be unforgotten to his trust if he submitted longer.

Mr. Taft undoubtedly realizes fully what the dismissal of Forester Pinchot means in a political way. He has been convinced for some time that the so called "insurgents" and other critics of his administration had enlisted the services of Mr. Pinchot and practically were defying him to separate Pinchot from his office. The latter's letter of Thursday, few here doubt, was written with the direct purpose of "putting it squarely up to the president."

Sought to Avoid War.

The president sought to avoid the threatened war as long as he could, but declared that pinched had ceased to be a virtue. He picked up the gaze of battle thrown down by Mr. Pinchot by the hand of Senator Dooliver in the senate and, with the administration supporters, is ready for the fray which is certain to ensue.

Political observers in Washington declare that the situation created by recent developments is the most tense of many years. What the outcome will be no one is willing to prophesy. In the house of representatives Speaker Cannon lost his first fight to the "insurgents," who, combining with the democrats, took from the speaker the power to appoint the committee of investigation. The margin of victory was a narrow one, but the "insurgents" and democrats alike are jubilant. The dismissal of Pinchot has lent fuel to the flame of their celebration and they are venturing all manner of predictions as to what is to happen in the future.

CALIFORNIA WITH PINCHOT

Forestry Society Urges Him to Stay With the Fight.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 8.—The Forestry society of California sent the following telegram to Gifford Pinchot, chief forester:

"The Forestry society of California, by unanimous vote, assures you of its absolute confidence in your judgment and sincerity. Stay with the fight; the people of California are with you."

Greeted With Cheers.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 8.—Cheering greeted the announcement of the dismissal of Gifford Pinchot at the session of the convention of the National Wool Growers' association. The action of President Taft may result in changing the association's proposed legislation, as many resolutions bear upon the forestry service and its relations to sheep grazing.

WOMEN HAVE A CLOSE CALL

Two Nearly Asphyxiated by Gas in St. Paul.

St. Paul, Jan. 8.—Mrs. S. J. Esley and her sister, Miss Carrie Wolf, 597 East Seventh street, had a remarkable escape from death by gas poison. They had been in the gas filled room from 6 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening, when the husband, S. J. Esley, returned from work. Both women were found on the floor, both almost dead. Dr. F. J. Halloran was called and after four hours of hard work he stated that Mrs. Esley would probably recover, but that Miss Wolf was still in a grave condition.

The accident is supposed to be the result of an error on the part of Mrs. Esley.

Experiment of Business Firm. A big commission house is experimenting with telegrams instead of letters and says the members can attend to business correspondence best with short messages.

DOES NOT GO FAR ENOUGH

But Congressman Martin Approves Taft's Message.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Representative Martin of South Dakota approves of President Taft's message on the Sherman anti-trust act, but he insists that he does not go far enough in his suggestion for changes in the law. He said:

"The president's anti-trust message is an exceedingly strong and noteworthy document. It could only have been written by a lawyer, and a lawyer of judicial mind. It fully recognizes the principle, purpose and scope of the Sherman anti-trust act, and upholds that law in no uncertain terms. The principle of the Sherman act is free competition, its purpose is to prevent and suppress monopoly, and its scope is broad enough to accomplish this without injury to legitimate industry. The president advises no amendment nor modification of this wholesome statute, but asks for new constructive legislation in aid of its better observance. The president's positive stand in support of the Sherman act should go far toward silencing the flippant criticism of the law and discourage any further efforts to legalize monopoly, at least during the Taft administration."

"The remedy proposed, voluntary federal incorporation, is all right if it can be made to work. Great care will need to be exercised in drawing any federal incorporation act, to make sure that corporations unlawful under the Sherman act could not organize under the federal incorporation statute, and in that manner become legal. The provisions of such a statute must agree with the provisions of the anti-trust law, or the effect would be to repeal or modify the terms of the anti-trust law. In this way the new act might afford a shelter to monopolies which are now outlawed."

TRAINS ARE PASSING THROUGH BOZEMAN

Released From Drifts and Resume Journey Westward.

Bozeman, Mont., Jan. 8.—The west-bound Northern Pacific trains which have been stalled in the blizzard near Reed Point for the past three days began going through here in rapid succession. Five have gone through already and eight more are now reported as due from midnight on. The Burlington train from Kansas City, due here at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning, was the first to go through. They had spent sixty hours at one spot near Reed Point, about eighty-five miles east of here, leaving early Friday morning. Other trains had been stopped behind this one until five trains were there. The rest of the delayed trains were held at Billings and Laurel. Though the experience was trying the passengers suffered no hardships and all agreed that they had been well taken care of by the railway company. All passengers were fed in the dining car, supplies being helped by eggs, butter, milk and poultry from neighboring farmhouses.

The storm was not sufficiently severe to keep the passengers in the cars and some called at the farmhouses. Several staked out homesteads in the snow, a town was laid out and lots were auctioned off. The travelers on the first train, observant of etiquette, made formal calls on the late comers on the other four trains.

Passengers Had Good Time. In fact, all concerned seemed to take it as a frolic, so they reported the climax was reached when the passengers on train No. 7, which left St. Paul on Monday night, under the lead of Dining Car Conductor D. E. Moston and his staff, started a vaudeville performance, to which all the passengers from the five trains were invited and in which many took part.

Among the star performers were Miss Julia Malone of St. Paul; Miss Abbie Mitchell of Chicago, on her way to Butte; Miss Abbott of Duluth, also on her way to Butte; Mrs. Brown of Leadville, Ida.; Charles M. Grubb, contracting freight agent of the Northern Pacific, and C. J. Austin of Chicago, an attorney for the St. Paul road, who was on his way to Bozeman.

Mr. Austin's stunt was followed by passing of the hat for the benefit of two little Russian girls, ten and eleven years old, traveling alone from New York to Seattle, who were provided with sleeper and dining car accommodations to Seattle. Delegations from all the trains were present and the dinner was packed, the "Standing Room Only" sign having been hung out before the performance began. There were three hours of singing, story telling, dancing and tumbling and then the passengers scattered out along the line of cars through the blizzard for the night.

Will Go to Europe. Seattle, Wash., Jan. 8.—E. C. Hughes of Seattle, counsel for claimants to the Cunningham group of Alaska coal entries, will go to Paris to take the testimony of A. B. Campbell and B. C. Riblett, both of Spokane, who are official entrants.

Fear Frost Damage to Oranges. Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 8.—Although it is yet too early to ascertain definitely the damage done to the orange crop by the recent frost, growers fear that it has been great.

INSURGENTS ARE VICTORIOUS

Administer Body Blow to Cannon Organization.

ALARMS THE STANDPATTERS

Attack on the House Organization Led by Representative Norris of Nebraska—All the Insurgents Rally to His Support With the Exception of Steenerson of Minnesota.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Speaker Cannon and his organization in the house were administered a body blow when the Republican insurgents amended the resolution providing for an investigation into the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy by providing that the committee of inquiry shall be named by the house itself instead of by the speaker.

The attack on the organization was led by Representative Norris of Nebraska, and all of the insurgents rallied to his support with the exception of Representative Steenerson of Minnesota. The Norris amendment denying the speaker the authority to name the house personnel of the committee on inquiry was carried by a vote of 149 to 146. The result staggered the house organization. The leaders are in conference to map out a plan of action with a view to checking the rising tide of "insurgency."

The attack of the insurgents came without warning to the house organization, but it was carried out under carefully prepared plans. The insurgents got busy early in the day, determined to take advantage of the opportunity to rebuke the organization without affronting the administration. They kept their lines intact up to the hour of voting, Mr. Steenerson being the only one to stray from the fold.

The Western insurgents who voted against the organization were: Minnesota—Davis, Lingbergh, Miller and Volstead. North Dakota—Gronna, Wisconsin—Cooper, Kopp, Nelson, Lenroot and Morse. Iowa—Haugen, Hubbard, Kendall, Pickett, Woods and Goode.

Steenerson Explains Vote.

Messrs. Tawney, Stevens, Steenerson and Nye of Minnesota, Hanna of North Dakota and Burke and Martin of South Dakota voted against the Norris amendment. They took the ground that nothing material was to be gained by the adoption of the Norris amendment.

Representative Steenerson, who was criticized by his fellow insurgents for not standing by them, explained his vote more in detail as follows:

"The president has asked for this investigation. It is an inquiry into acts of members of his own official family. He indicated to congress the kind of an investigation he wanted, and approved the form of resolution reported to the house by the committee on rules. I could not see my way clear to cast a vote that would in any way change the resolution that had been indorsed in advance by the president. If it had been a question affecting the general practice of the house I should have voted to take the power of appointing the committee out of the hands of the speaker. In this case, however, I felt it my duty to vote as I did."

This is the first taste of victory the insurgents have had since they first banded together and decided to fight Cannonism and the Cannon rules. It has shown them their power, and they are more than jubilant.

There was a wild scene of enthusiasm in the chamber when Mr. Cannon, grim, unsmiling, never more fully meriting his title of the "Iron duke of Illinois," announced the vote. The democrats yelled and whooped and banged their desks. The insurgents gripped hands and promised to stick together forever and ever. The insurgents and their democratic allies, having had this taste of power, this sample of victory, say that Cannonism is doomed.

ROCKEFELLER TURNED DOWN

Anti-Saloon League Ignores His Proposition.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 8.—In answer to statements made to the effect that the Anti-Saloon League was backed wholly or in part by John D. Rockefeller and his representatives, Superintendent M. S. Poulson of Lincoln, head of the Nebraska league, issued the following statement:

"John D. Rockefeller's representative offered to subscribe a substantial sum to the Anti-Saloon league if we would promise to stop our fight against Speaker Cannon and the men who with him have been holding up temperance legislation at Washington."

"He was politely but emphatically told that he did not have enough money to buy us off. Our fight is not a personal one. We are not against these men, but when they deliberately block the way then the Anti-Saloon league means to accomplish its end even if it has to go into the home districts of these big fellows and show up their subservience to the liquor trust."

"There is not enough money available to buy us from this fight for reasonable interstate liquor shipment legislation. Our commission is not from these men."

IN HANDS OF A RECEIVER

Surety Company Unable to Pay Zimmerman's Obligations.

East Grand Forks, Minn., Jan. 8.—From present indications, East Grand Forks will be out $4,500, C. P. Zimmerman's alleged defalcations. Word has been received that the Metropolitan Surety company of New York, from which company Zimmerman received his bond, has been in the hands of a receiver for about a year. The letter states it will take some time, or perhaps be impossible, to recover the amount of Zimmerman's shortage.

No action has been taken as yet to locate Zimmerman. Mrs. Zimmerman and children left Thursday evening for Arn Prior, Can., where her parents reside. She declares she knows nothing of her husband's whereabouts.

It is reported Zimmerman left a large amount of money in her name in one of the local banks. Several are of the opinion that Zimmerman is now in his old home in Germany.

COAL FAMINE IN IOWA IS SERIOUS

Railroad Commission Asks Railways to Haul Coal.

Des Moines, Jan. 8.—So serious has become the coal famine in Iowa that the state railroad commission at a meeting wired the presidents of all railroads operating in the state to abandon their passenger service for a couple of days and devote all their energies to hauling coal. The Rock Island has already abandoned passenger trains in some parts of the state where the suffering is greatest, and other roads have indicated a willingness to follow suit, if necessary.

At Missouri Valley the citizens organized a committee and confiscated several cars of coal for fuel for the central heating plant which heats the city. The plant has been out of fuel for twelve hours.

Word reached Des Moines that 400 workmen had been thrown out of employment at Clinton because factories were compelled to close down on account of coal scarcity. The state university has been compelled to close down, and the state agricultural college at Ames will do likewise if relief does not come in a day or two.

In Des Moines the Iowa Pipe and Tile company and the Sterling Paper Box company, employing several hundred men and girls, closed down for want of fuel. The Kratzer Carriage company will close unless relief comes. Local dealers have taken advantage of the famine and boosted the price of coal from $4.00 to $4.50 per ton. There is actual suffering here on account of the cold.

NORRIS SCORES THE SPEAKER

Nebraska Congressman Criticizes Cannon.

Washington, Jan. 8.—In the advance sheets of Senator La Follette's publication which reached Washington Representative George W. Norris of Nebraska, one of the leading Republican insurgents of the house, appears as author of an article entitled, "The Secret of His Power," in which he bitterly arraigns Speaker Cannon as a despotic "iron duke," ruling the house of representatives with a ruthless hand.

"Today, as far as the enactment of legislation is concerned," says Mr. Norris, "the house of representatives bears about the same relation to the national government as the appendix does to the human body—it has no well recognized function. For all practical purposes our national government, like Gaul of old, is divided into three parts—the senate, the president and the speaker."

"This perversion of the real intent and object of the Constitution has been brought about so gradually and quietly that until recently the people have not understood the method of its accomplishment."

Chicago Is Suffering.

Chicago, Jan. 8.—With the railroads totally unable to cope with the traffic situation the coal famine which Chicago has experienced for several days as the result of the continued cold reached an acute stage. Officials of the railroad companies declared they were doing everything possible to relieve the situation, but less coal was brought into Chicago than on previous days.

Cattle Frozen on Train.

Federal, Ill., Jan. 7.—Seventy-five cattle were found frozen to death on a Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis train here. The train was abandoned by the crew on a siding after the men had worked sixteen hours and laid here for eleven hours before a relief crew appeared.

Cook to Make Another Dash.

Port Jervis, N. Y., Jan. 8.—The missing Dr. Cook is now in Germany perfecting plans for an expedition to the Arctic regions next year, according to a statement by Theodore Cook, brother of the explorer, who is visiting friends in this section.

Wolves Leave Minnesota.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 8.—Canadian trappers from the Northwest report a marked increase in the number of wolves in the wooded districts of Western Ontario, coming off the plains of Minnesota and Manitoba, driven by the increase of population there.

NOTED PRELATE PASSES AWAY

SPENCER TRASK, THE BANKER

Pretty Story About the Naming of Late Financier's Country Home.

Spencer Trask, recently killed in a railroad collision near Croton, N. Y., was the head of the wealthy banking house of Spencer Trask & Co., in New York, which for many years acted as the financial agent of the late Queen Victoria in America. He was an exponent of conservative financial methods and was born in Brooklyn on Sept. 18, 1844. When he and William E. Francis parted company in 1880 he founded the present firm of Spencer Trask & Co. with George Foster Peabody, now head of the Carnegie foundation.

Mr. Trask married in 1874 Miss Kate Nichols, who has won fame by her poems and novelettes. Their summer home at Saratoga, Yaddo, is one of the show places of the Empire State. He had been in poor health since the death of his two daughters six years ago and last summer lost an eye in an automobile accident.

Mr. Trask was graduated at Princeton in 1866 and was a member of the Metropolitan Union League, City, Calumet, Automobile of America, Tuxedo, Lawyers' and National Arts club. He had been director in many railroads and was originally connected with Thomas Edison in the development of electric lighting. He was president of the Edison Light and Power system for many years.

Mr. Trask's tastes and habits were domestic. Yaddo is located near Saratoga on the avenue leading from Saratoga lake. In this handsome country seat he took great pride and spent a considerable portion of his time there in the enjoyment of his rural comforts and in the entertainment of his friends. The estate embraces about 500 acres, and the grounds are given especial distinction by their inclosure of a chain of small lakes.

In and out among these and through the surrounding woods are beautiful drives which Mr. Trask threw open to the public and helped to make Saratoga a delightful and fashionable summer resort.

A pretty story surrounds the naming of Yaddo. A little child visiting the estate before a name had been selected for it paused in front of a pool of water and gazed at its reflection there. Then the little one stretched out its hands toward the pool and exclaimed, "Yaddo, Yaddo!" It was the child's way of saying "shadow." Mr. Trask was so pleased with this that he named the estate Yaddo.

The original mansion on the estate was destroyed by fire in 1891, and its destruction entailed the loss of many valuable personal effects which could not be replaced. On the site of the destroyed building he erected a more modern and far more handsome edifice, which is today one of the finest country residences in the state of New York.

Cardinal Satolli Dies After a Long Illness.

DEATH HAD BEEN EXPECTED

Prince of the Catholic Church Had Been Ill for a Long Time—Deceased Prelate Well Known in the United States, Where He Had Represented the Vatican as Apostolic Delegate.

Rome, Jan. 8.—Cardinal Satolli, who has been ill for some time, died this morning at 4 o'clock. His death had long been expected.

Cardinal Satolli was best known in this country as the first apostolic delegate from the Vatican to the United States. He came here in October, 1892, and was then called officially by Pope Leo XIII. "our venerable brother, Francis, titular archbishop of Lepanto." "My Perugian boy" was the more familiar and endearing term by which the venerated father of the Catholic church spoke in private life of his former pupil and protege.

Francis Satolli was born in Perugia, Italy, in 1839. He was educated in the diocesan seminary of Perugia, then the most eminent ecclesiastical school in Italy, over which presided Joachim Pecci, archbishop of Perugia, destined some years later to be called to the chair of St. Peter as Pope Leo XIII. Satolli as a boy displayed gifts of oratory of the highest order, both in his native tongue and in ecclesiastical Latin, and to those accomplishments he added great powers of original thought and marked facility as a writer. When Pope Leo XIII. went to

CARDINAL SATOLLI.

Rome Satolli was summoned to the Vatican. In 1886 he was appointed president of the Academy of Noble Ecclesiastics, a school in which young clergymen of birth, fortune and talents are trained in ecclesiastical diplomacy and prepared for the nunciatures and other important posts of church administration. In June, 1889, he was created titular archbishop of Lepanto.

Admired Archbishop Ireland.

In the fall of 1889 Archbishop Satolli was deputed by the pope to represent him at Baltimore on the occasion of the celebration in Baltimore of the centenary of the Catholic hierarchy in the United States, and also at the inauguration of the Catholic university of the United States in Washington. It was on those occasions that he made the acquaintance of Archbishop Ireland, for whom he acquired strong feelings of admiration and regard, which were deepened by Mr. Ireland's subsequent visit to Rome to lay before the pope the details of the Fairbank plan.

Satolli was presented to President Harrison and the cabinet at Washington and became greatly impressed with the vast possibilities for the advancement of the church in the United States. This visit and the accounts he carried back to the pope formed the prelude to his designation as apostolic delegate to the United States in 1893.

In 1895, two years after his appointment as delegate, Satolli was elevated to the college of cardinals and he was invested with the beretta by Cardinal Gibbons in the Baltimore cathedral in January, 1896. The ceremony was a most imposing one and was attended by many notables. He was relieved of his duties in the United States in 1896 and returned to Rome.

On the death of Pope Leo Cardinal Satolli was mentioned as his possible successor. It has been considered likely that had he outlived the present pope, Pius X., he would have had considerable support among the cardinals in the conclave as his successor.

Would Abolish Iowa Land Office.

Washington, Jan. 8.—"In my opinion the public interests and economical administration require the discontinuance of the office," says Secretary Ballinger in forwarding to congress the draft of a proposed bill abolishing the land office at Des Moines, Ia., on Feb. 28 next. Receipts of that office for the last fiscal year were $354, while the expense of administration was $1,248.

Mr. L. S. Zakariasen has joined the Twin Cities Custom Cutters Association. This organization is for the purpose of meeting together and work on the latest fashions and latest ways of making up garments. They get reports from the International Cutters of America. Mr. Zaka-riasen intends to make trips to the cities when they meet, several times a year.

A good audience attended the play given by the amateur dramatic company of the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon. The orchestra gave some inspiring music and each player acquitted himself well. The main room was fitted up in a stagey manner, and the audience enjoyed the play "Vacations" very much. They will put the same play on this evening and from the number of tickets sold have already insured a full house.

The finance committee, water and light committee and the water board, met in joint meeting last evening at the council rooms. Several matters of importance were discussed. The matter of water and light charges, etc., and the purchase of a new pump received attention. Some of the committee were of the opinion that they were limited to $2000 for the purchase of a new pump, but the resolution passed by the council reads, "that a pump of suitable size should be purchased." Several representatives of pump firms are in the city

Exchange of Pulpits

There will be an exchange of pulpits in four of the churches on Sunday evening next. The Rev. C. B.
Hilton will preach at the First Congregational church, the Rev. W. J.
Lowrie will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church, the Rev. Charles Fox Davis at the Presbyterian. This is done to keep up the spirit of the services which the four congregations have been engaged in during the past week, and which will continue throughout next week.

INVESTIGATES TWO DEATHS

Albert Loughton Dies Very Suddenly of Heart Failure at Crooked Lake

ADOLPH MOODY'S SUDDEN DEATH

At Gladstone Lake Also Investigated by the Deputy Coroner

Ralph Mooney, deputy coroner, returned last evening from Crooked Lake to which place he had been called by the death of Albert Loughton. Mr. Mooney said that from what he found out that it was hardly a coroner's case, but went there because called upon. The cause of death was heart failure. From what Mr. Mooney learned, Mr. Loughton left his farm home and went to Emily, but complained on his way home to one of his sons that he was not feeling well. On arriving at the farm, his sons took care of the horses Mr. Loughton lying down on the couch. When the boys came in they spoke to their father but found him lifeless. The body was brought down on the M. & I. this noon and will be kept here until Monday morning, and shipped to Clear Lake, his former home.

F. D. Smallwood, deputy coroner, who took the place of county coroner T. W. Gibson, came down from Gladstone Lake this morning at three o'clock after having made a journey to the home of Adolph Moody, whose death took place on Thursday morning. It appears for the last few weeks that Mr. Moody had been living alone, his sister who had made her home with him for several years, but two weeks ago having got married. On Wednesday Mr. Moody had called in a neighbor, William Tutch, and the two men had cut wood most of that day. On going to bed, Mr. Moody complained of a severe cold which had been troubling him for the past month and pains in the lungs. After Mr. Tutch had risen on Thursday morning and had breakfast prepared, he called Mr. Moody, but received no answer, entering his room he found him dead. The funeral arrangements have not yet been set. Mr. and Mrs. August Molski, were in town this morning to look after the matter.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Robert Miller Seriously Injured Friday Morning on R. R. Wise's Farm

A serious accident happened to Robert Miller, aged 20, at the farm of R. R. Wise, yesterday morning. The young man was hired as one of the crew of a corn shredder which was threshing the corn on Mr. Wise's farm and accidentally got his left hand crushed in two of the cog wheels of the machinery. He was brought to the city and placed in the St. Joseph's hospital and attended by Drs. Camp and Thabes, who found that the wheels had gone quartering over the hand, completely cutting the little finger and the larger part of the rest. The corn shredder belongs to parties in Crow Wing, and was going from farm to farm in this county. The young man was reported as doing as well as could be expected under the circumstances at the hospital today. His home is not far from the above farm.

MYSTERIOUS CAR OF BEER

A Car Load of the Stuff that Made Milwaukee Famous is Doing the Same Thing for Detroit

Detroit, up in the Indian country where the government tells the people who may and who may not sell booze, beer and malt, has a sensation. In the shape of a car load of St. Paul beer that doesn't belong to anyone and no one knows what to do with it—except the Indians, and they have been doing things to the foamy amber fluid that would put the oldest old timer in the shade. It seems that Lo, the poor Indian, who is rather thick around the up-state village, has developed in the past few years a powerful appetite for the foamy fluid, and that the arduous efforts of W. E. Johnson, government sleuth, have only made it more difficult for the Indian to satisfy the thirst.

Sleuth Johnson agreed to refrain from prosecuting three or four of Detroit's liquor dealers during the clean up recently, provided their owners could tell the difference between an Indian and a white when he saw them across the bar. The saloonkeepers have stuck to their agreement.

Last week the famine was broken so much so, say Detroit citizens who have communicated with W. G. Caldwell, that Indians were drunk all over the town. On a sidetrack in the railroad yards a partly exhausted carload of St. Paul's finest reposed. The railroad company was sure it was not railroad property, the saloonkeepers are positive that they do not own it and only the Indians who got the liquor know, and they won't tell.

CONTEST FOR RURAL SCHOOLS

Crow Wing County Educational Association Takes up Matter of Importance

CIRCULARS BEING SENT OUT

Contests to be Held in Writing, Original Drawing and Composition this Spring

County Superintendent Wilson is sending out to the clerks of the various school districts copies of the following resolutions passed by the last meeting of the Crow Wing County Educational Association concerning the important matter of competitive contests:

At the spring meeting of the Crow Wing County Educational Association the following resolution was presented and adopted. The same resolution was again presented to the Association in the October meeting, 1909 and was again approved:

Be It Resolved, By the Crow Wing County Teachers' Association assembled in Brainerd this 23rd day of April, 1909:—

(a) That we institute an Educational Contest for the pupils of all rural and semi-graded schools in the county, the contest to include specimens of writing, original drawing and composition. The number of specimens submitted shall be limited to three in each class from each school entering the contest. All exhibits for the contest shall be delivered at the office of the county superintendent, by mail or otherwise not later than three days prior to the opening of each meeting of the Association. Ten days prior to the date set for the meeting of the Association the county superintendent, with the concurrence of the executive committee, shall appoint an exhibit committee of three members whose duty shall be to arrange and care for the exhibit. This committee shall also name, subject to the approval of the Association, the prizes to be awarded and select the judges who shall award the prizes.

(b) That to secure uniformity and fairness, the Association shall, through a proper committee, assign the work in each class and prepare score cards for judging the specimens submitted and that the county superintendent be requested to supply each school with the score cards and topics.

(c) That all teachers are recommended to devote the afternoon of the last Friday in each month to general oral review exercises on the work of that month.

(d) Teachers are requested to issue invitation to parents and other interested persons to attend these review exercises.

(e) School Boards are especially urged to attend these exercises and to encourage the teachers by wise counsel and cooperation, and to assist in selecting the best work to be sent to the County Contest.

(f) The exhibit committee at the regular meeting of the Association shall propose the topics for the next contest.

(g) That a copy of these resolutions shall be sent to each district clerk.

The work for the April meeting, 1910, will be prepared according to the following topics and outline.

Writing—The first stanza of "America" to be written on plain single ruled paper, letter head size, or about 11x8½ inches.

Drawing—A pencil sketch of the school building on drawing paper same size as that for writing.

Composition—An essay of not less than 150 words nor more than 300 words on, "Farming as a Means of Getting a Living in Crow Wing County." Paper to be used same size as for writing.

All papers submitted must bear name, age, grade, district number and post office address of pupil.

The names of the successful exhibitors will be entered on the records of the Association.

To the three best specimens in each class certificates of merit will be awarded, signed by the president of the association and the county superintendent of schools.

The disadvantages of rural schools have been much exploited in the past few years; but the only real disadvantage inherent in the system lies in the small enrollment of pupils and the physical isolation of the schools. This contest is designed to overcome these disadvantages by bringing into touch and conscious relation, through the medium of this competitive work, all the schools in the county, both teachers and pupils the work of the pupils being in some degree a reflection of the work and spirit of the teacher. The monthly review work recommended is further designed to make the work of the school in other branches more definite and positive, emphasizing the central ideas in the lessons and bringing the work of the school into more definite recognition by parents and school officers.

Signed,

D. C. HENDERSON,

ELSIE ENGLISH,

MABEL M. PARKER,

Committee.

I sincerely trust that all teachers will faithfully carry out the provisions of this resolution, which was presented and adopted by the teachers of the county in meetings of their own association.

Teachers, school officers, parents and children will be greatly benefited by a union of forces as suggested by this resolution.

I know that some of you are already working beyond the limit required by your position but still it is from you busy teachers that I am anticipating the greatest success. The Master hath said "Thou hast been faithful in a few things, and I will make thee ruler in many things."

J. A. WILSON,

County Superintendent of Schools.

JONES ON TRIAL

If Found Guilty He Can be Sentenced to 170 Years in the Penitentiary

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 7.—Andy H. Jones, cashier of the Rugby First National bank, was placed on trial in the United States district court this afternoon on a charge of embezzlement, misappropriation and abstraction of funds of a national bank. There are seventeen counts in the indictment, and if he is found guilty he can be sentenced to a maximum of 170 years in the penitentiary.

During the three years covered by the indictments he checked out $250,000.

Assistant United States District Attorney Barnett will examine the witnesses and the chief attorney for Mr. Jones is ex-Supreme Court Judge Engender, of Fargo. Special Agent Proctor of the treasury department is in attendance. Court adjourned this evening as the last juror was secured. The jury is made up mostly of farmers.

Shortly after Jones' peculations were discovered he fled the state, but was caught late in the summer in Texas and was brought back here by the United States marshal.

As soon as the case was called a motion was made by Judge Engender for a continuance on the ground that Senator Purcell of Wahpeton, also for the defense, was not present, but this was not allowed.

Special Agent Proctor made the audit of the bank books after the departure of Jones from the state. It became known this afternoon that Jones will have to explain the expenditure of over $250,000.

KLING A CANDIDATE

Representative Kling Tells the Minneapolis Tribune That he is a Candidate for Speaker

Representative Elmer A. Kling is a candidate for speaker of the house of representatives, according to an interview in the Minneapolis Tribune which would indicate that he will be a candidate for reelection the next election. The Tribune says:

"Representative Elmer A. Kling of Little Falls will be a candidate for the speakership of the next house. Mr. Kling was in St. Paul yesterday and admitted this was his intention. 'Yes,' said Mr. Kling, 'I understand there is to be a fight on me. But if there is, I shall certainly be a candidate for the position of speaker. It is being charged in my district that I promised to vote for county option. I never did any such thing, and my friends all know it. I shall be a candidate for re-election and will be a candidate for the speakership in all probability.'"

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will Brainerd People Learn the Importance of it?

Backache is only a simple thing at first; But when you know 'tis from the kidneys; That serious kidney troubles follow;

That diabetes, Bright's disease may be the fatal end. You will gladly profit by the following experience.

'Tis the honest statement of a sufferer who was cured.

Mrs. George H. Davis, of Wadena, Minn., says: "When I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, I know whereof I speak. Three or four years ago I was attacked by sharp pains in the small of my back, sometimes extending into my head. The kidney secretions became unnatural and showed that my kidneys were disordered. Doan's Kidney Pills soon disposed of the pain and kidney weakness and I have had little or no trouble of the kind since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Boy Had Fits For 6 Years

Best doctors gave him up—cured by DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

Mrs. J. D. Palmer, 38 Park St., Amsterdam, N. Y., writes: "When six years of age my boy began to have fits. They came on in the night. He would make strange noises, stiffen out, froth at mouth, face would twitch and sometimes turned purple. After the fit he could not talk."

"The family physician said all he could do was to keep them down somewhat. The second physician pronounced trouble Jeffersonian epilepsy, but could not cure him. He suffered for six years and before beginning the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills had three fits in about five days. He has taken seven boxes and has not had the symptom of a fit since beginning this treatment five months ago. His color has greatly improved; he is not nervous and irritable like he used to be, and we consider his cure a most remarkable one."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills fifty cts. a box, all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portraits and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every box.
